The Herald's Toronto correspondent The Herald's Toronto correspondent states that the reason for postponement of the uneeting of Parliament till Maynext is the fear that a Fenian invasion may be made during the winter. The provincial Fenians, though in favor of O'Mahoney, are not opposed to invasion by Gen. Sweeney during the winter.—One night last week word was sent over by discharged volunteers at Ogdensburgh, that the Fenians were coming. The garrison at Fort Wellington turned out to receive them, when the exvolunteers fired several shots, and the garrison, it is stated, behaved very badiy. The volunteers then returned satisfied with their, sport.

The Heraid's Fortress Monroe correspondent says the removal of Lieut, Col. Baylor from the ordnance department at Fortress Monroe, by the Secretary of War, is attributed to the fact of his employment of so many ex-rebel soldiers. It is believed his explanations will be satisfactory.

It is stated that great injustice has been done to several individuals by peremptory order removing all Southerners from Fortress Monroe, as they had been Union soldisrs.

The Herald's Washington special says:
The French minister has made a demand on the State department for information in relation to the recent capture of Bagdad, Mexico, by Yankee fill-busters. Up to Saturday night no efficial information relating thereto had been received at the department. Instructions were transmitted to General Sheridan, immediately on receipt of intelligence of the affair, requiring him to make a thorough investigation and punish the offenders Several prominent French sfficers direct from the Maximillangovarnment in Mexico, passed through the capital yesterday on their way to France, and give flattering accounts of Imperial prospects, without giving any specific details.

The San Francisco correspondent represents the operations of the Mexican Republicans in the northwestern section of their country as still carried on with great perseverance and energy, General Ozagon, commander of the department of Jalisco, who was some time ago in this city was about to leave

Gen. Alvariz was still encamped near Ocapulco, and had possession of all the surrounding country and was keeping such a close watch on the Imperial troops garrisoning the town, that none of them dared to venture outside of it on land, and all their supplies had to come to them by sea from a distance.—The entire country from Acapulca to within a short distance of the city of Mexico, is said to be in possession of the Republicans.

Late Mexican papers publish protests

sagainst one case of its barbarous execution by Col. Mendiz, one of the Imperial officers, who caused to be shot immediately a number of Republicans whom he captured. One of these protests is addressed to Maximilian, and the other to the representatives of the Belgian nation. The protestants say they did not come to Mexico to fight in this iniquitous war, but as an escort to a princess of their country, Carlotta, and that having been forced into active service, their lives are now in placed in jeopardy by the execution of the barbarous Imperial decree, they being liable to suffer if the Republicans should retailate.

The World's Berlin correspondent reports the prevalence of a panic in the Prussian capital as second only to that caused by the appearance of the cholera. The Micherina disease, a new and horrible malady, is spreading through Prussla, and of those attacked by it at least twenty-five per cent die a horrible death. Surgeons trace the origin of it to a species of worm that attacks pies, and as the Germans are essentially a pork eating people, prepare their food only partially cooked, the new scourge has utterly disarranged their habits, and caused a feeling of intense alarm to pervade all classes.

The Freedmen in North Carolina.

Washington, Jan. 21.—Col. Whittlesey, Assistant Commissioner of the Bureau of refugees, freedmen snd abandoned lands in North Carolina, reports that so generally have the freedmen sought employment and obtained it that the demand for laborers cannot be easily supplied. He says the expectation of lands to be given by the Government, a hope first kindled by rebel politicians in their efforts to fire the Southern heart, and afterward increased by the confiscation act, has now passed away. All officers of the bureau discountenanced such hopes by public addresses and circulars widely spread, but so fixed had they become before the war closed that it was not easy to eradicate them. When, however, Christmas actually passed and the year ended without any gifts of the kind, it was admitted that we had told them the truth and they had been deceived by the talk of their former masters. So also on the other hand have the idle and conscience begotton fears of insurrection passed away. All admit that a more quiet and orderly Christmas has never been enjoyed in this region. The history of the world may be challenged for another instance of such good conduct in similar circumstances as the freedmen have thus far maintained. The Freedmen in North Carolina
